To all of our insurance clients, friends and family,

We want you to know that you are constantly in our thoughts as we are all facing difficult times in this Coronavirus Pandemic. We wanted to communicate with all of you with this newsletter to let you know that we are here to help you in whatever way possible as we are traveling a journey that is new to all of us. We are working remotely from our office and are able to assist by phone or computer, those who are new to Medicare and/or retiring. Page 3 of this newsletter is a flyer that you may mail to anyone you know that is new to Medicare and needs help. You may call us, text us or email us. We also invite you to join us on Facebook and/or communicate through Messenger. We are continually sharing pictures and even some music videos of Becky playing piano on Facebook. The Facebook user name is Becky Graham Hilburn. You may email us at BECKYHILBURN@ROCKETMAIL.COM. We would love to stay in touch with you and your family on Facebook.

Just recently a relative of mine sent me a book in the mail that significantly impacted my everyday life. The title is, "One Thousand Gifts - A Dare to Live Fully Right Where You Are" written by Ann Voskamp. Over 1 million copies have been sold. A quote from that book: "The greatest thing is to give thanks for everything. He who has learned this knows what it means to live...he has penetrated the whole mystery of life: giving thanks for everything." The Bible has many scriptures instructing us to give thanks and be thankful. In her book, Ann shows how being thankful, even in difficult times, can bring joy.

As I read her book, I was greatly challenged to begin to express thankfulness for even the smallest things: a fresh hot cup of coffee in my favorite mug, rays of a morning sun though the window, my favorite fuzzy jacket on a cool day, a dove softly cooing in the distance, mellow windchimes in a light spring breeze, a familiar voice on the phone saying, "I'm thinking of you," the soft fragrance of magnolia blossoms in late spring, fragrance of soup simmering on the stove on a cold rainy day, fresh whipped cream on a spoon, bounce of a basketball on the concrete outside by happy children, the feel of piano keys under my fingers, the morning feed of squirrels and birds by the patio, beginning notes on the clarinet by 12 year old, smells of Banana Nut Bread baking in the oven, raindrops splattering on my office window, report cards with A's, little hands holding on to me during the thunder and lightning, a first grader's written message that says: I love you to the moon and back, blue skies and white fluffy clouds, a full moon coming up behind the silhouette of tall pine trees.

These are some of the things I have learned to stop and be thankful for. We can find many things to be grateful for if we will just stop and seize the moment of opportunity. In the midst of tragedy and distress, if we can purposely look for things to be thankful for and find joy in them, we will make this journey... yes, we will make the journey. And when this journey through this pandemic has ended we will all be different in some way, hopefully for the better.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. May God Bless you.
